W. P. MOORE,

Begs to inform the Gentlemen of Hongkong and Visitors that he has reduced the price of Hair-Cutting to 50 cents. Having now in his employ three competent Assistants who are always in attendance, he guarantees to execute this class of work, in all its branches, with a perfection which cannot be excelled in any part of the World.

Hair-Cutting 50 cents.

Monthly Customers taken at reduced rates.

RAZORS MOST CAREFULLY RE-SET.

Mr. Moore begs to recommend his GOGO SHAMPOO WASH to the public as unrivalled by any preparation ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root; the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this Shampoo Wash as directed, you will never be bald. The proprietor offers the Wash to the public entirely confident that by its restorative properties it will without fail arrest decaying hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. It does not contain any poisonous drugs. By its cooling properties it allays the itching and fever of the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair.

Mr. Moore has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee it to keep any length of time in any climate.

HONGKONG, 14TH JULY, 1881.

One of the most noteworthy facts connected with the recent troubles in Ireland, is the defiant attitude assumed by the local chiefs of the Roman Catholic Church towards the British Government. It is perfectly true that, in all the wars, riots, and outrages, which for years have blackened what might have been a fair page of Irish History, the general body of the priesthood have always, either directly or indirectly, borne a prominent part; but only in exceptional cases have the princes of the church shown anything like disaffection towards the Government. Cardinal Newman, one of the greatest lights the Roman Catholic Church has ever produced, and one of the best friends the Irish people have known in the present generation, has ever, in the midst of Fenian scares, attempted revolutions, and agarian outrages, shown himself no less the people's friend and adviser than the devoted adherent of the state. It is therefore with great pain and surprise that we read of the extraordinary speech delivered at Tipperary by Archbishop Croke, on the action of the Government in summarily arresting, and lodging in gaol the Land League agitators, Dillon, Davitt, and Sheehy. The interference of Church dignitaries in political affairs has ever in the past been the fore-runner of grievous complications, and from the undue influence which the priests invariably exercise over the minds of the ignorant and impulsive peasantry, there can be little doubt that Dr. Croke's ill timed interference in secular affairs will ultimately lead to some restriction being placed upon the whole race of clerical agitators.

Archbishop Croke in his Tipperary address, boldly asserted that Dillon, Davitt, and Sheehy had been wrongfully imprisoned, as they had committed no crime, and no honorable or impartial jury could convict them. And this blatant balderdash is actually applauded, and approved of by the Irish Times and other high class journals. We do not propose following the reverend Archbishop through his vehement denunciation of the proceedings which the Government have been compelled to undertake against the general body of Land Leaguers; but if open sedition, and undisguised conspiracy against the Crown do not constitute just grounds for arrest, we know nothing of constitutional law. It is the more surprising that a man of Dr. Croke's princely rank and well trained intelligence should take such an inexplicable course, when it is considered what gigantic efforts the present Government have been making in order to tranquillise Ireland, and to introduce an improved order of things which they hope will inaugurate a new era in Irish history. Mr. Gladstone's Land Bill is one of the most extraordinary measures ever laid before an English Parliament, and it speaks highly for the courage of the Government, and for the desire for genuine reform which has marked the actions of the mass of members, who constitute the great Liberal Party, that a bill of such a revolutionary character, intended solely to benefit the hewers of wood and drawers of water in the Emerald Isle, should have been persevered with, in the face of an opposition which would have swamped many a government at the first reading. Whether this bill will pass the House of Lords, or like other measures of a similar tendency, be tabooed and thrown out by that fossilised body of hereditary legislators, time alone can show; but it is certainly poor encouragement for the Government to find all their exertions in the public interest thwarted in every possible way by a bigotted peasantry backed up and encouraged by a parcel of rascally adventurers, and an irreconcilable priesthood.

It is some consolation to know that the religious agitation is only of a local character, and that the indiscretions of Archbishop Croke and his clerical supporters have already been severely admonished from the Vatican. Cardinal Manning, Archbishop McCabe, of Dublin, and the many powerful English nobles who add weight and lustre to the Roman Catholic Faith, lost no time in laying their views of Dr. Croke's interference in secular matters which concerned him not, before the Pope, and His Holiness, it is stated, immediately requested Archbishop Croke to report himself at Rome, and instructed the Bishop of Limerick, Dr. Butler, to suspend Father Sheehy, as soon as he was released from prison. This is as it should be, and admirers of Leo XIII will be glad to find that, in this, as in almost every matter which has come before him, His Holiness has exhibited the same sensible views, and enlightened statesmanship which so distinguished the whole career of Cardinal Pecci.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

The gunboats Est and Tweed having had their crews paid off are now left with only a small number of men on board of each, just sufficient to keep the ships in order, and they will go over to Kowloon for safety during the approaching typhoon season.

The Midge, 4, which has been lately manned temporarily from the Kestrel went over to Kowloon yesterday and has taken up her position abreast of the Coal Sheds, where she will remain, laid up in ordinary, until the arrival of a new crew from England, when she will be re-commissioned.

The double screw gun vessel Swift, 5, Commander W. Collins arrived here yesterday afternoon and will relieve the Lapwing at present at Shanghai. The Swift was commissioned at Chatham on the 15th March last for service on the China station, she is a new vessel having been built recently, of steel, with her sister ship the Linnet, by the Thames Iron Shipbuilding Company, and engined by Ronnie with machinery of 870 h.p. She carries three 20 por. B.L., and two 7 inch, 4½ tons, M.L. guns, and one Gatling, with a complement of 73 men all told. The Swift can carry sufficient coal in her bunkers to sustain forty days steaming at seven knots, and could make a trip from China to England without the necessity of coaling on the voyage. It is rumoured that she will probably be employed as a despatch vessel to the Detached Squadron during the time they may remain in China waters. The following is a list of her officers:—Commander William Collins, Lieutenants Vernon A. Tisdall and Arthur H. Shirley, Navigating Lieutenant Frank J. Harwood, Staff Surgeon George B. Murray, Paymaster Francis R. C. Widdon, Chief Engineer Peter Colquhoun, Gunner Michael King, and Assistant Engineer John W. Hole.

From our American files to hand per steamer Belgic, we learn that a most destructive fire has occurred in Quebec, on the evening of the 8th June, laying a large portion of that city in ashes. Many large and important buildings have been destroyed, and the greatest consternation prevailed among the inhabitants, over 1,600 families being rendered homeless. The police and firemen are described as having been to a great extent demoralised, and plunder and robbery appear to have been carried on in the most open manner, liquor stores especially coming in for a considerable share of patronage. Five lives are known to have been lost, but there are still missing one woman and three children as to whose fate there is a degree of uncertainty. About 600 houses have been destroyed and the cost of the damage done has been roughly estimated at $1,500,000, local insurance offices losing to the extent of from $250,000 to $300,000. Most of the sufferers are in fair circumstances, but many are rendered destitute, and subscriptions are being raised for their relief, the Legislature voting $10,000. The fire occurred in the wooden built portion of the city in which the more prominent insurance companies are said to have declined to take risk, and it is believed that the loss will fall chiefly on Canadian companies.

From what we understand the long talked of Chinese agencies, in the principal cities of Europe and America, are likely soon to be carried out in a systematic and efficient manner. It is said that the operations of the proposed Association will not be confined to executing orders, or selling produce on commission; but a large proportion of Government orders, which now go through the London branch of the Chinese Foreign Customs, will be likely in future to go through this channel. The head quarters of the Association will be in Hongkong.

Another combination recently attempted by the Chinese, of monopolising the carrying trade between Hongkong and California is likely to prove a failure, if it has not already done so. In the face of the strong position held by the existing Steamer Companies, controlling as they virtually do, the goods traffic by Railway from San Francisco, this result is not surprising. It is only to be wondered that the Guilds did not move with greater caution and ascertain the strength of their adversaries' position, before attempting a fight which has proved so complete a failure.

We are requested to state that no accident befel any of the crew of the German steamer Brutus on Tuesday the 12th instant, as reported in the columns of the China Mail of that date. The Brutus arrived here on the afternoon of Saturday the 9th, and she has had no occasion to shift from the position she then took up in the centre of the harbour. A fireman belonging to the steamer lost his life on Sunday evening by the capsizing of a sampan as recorded in these columns on Tuesday, but no second casualty has occurred as reported by our contemporary, and it seems rather rough on the crew to consign another of their number to Davy Jones' locker for the sake of inserting a paragraph.

The Laertes, which arrived this morning reports having sighted the steamer Elgin on a rock of the Bombay Shoal.

About nine o'clock last night the body of a Chinese houseboy about nineteen years of age, was found hanging in the servant's quarters of a house in Wyndham-street. The body was removed by the police to the Government Civil Hospital where an inquest will be held during the course of this afternoon.

We observed a relay of coolies busily engaged scrubbing the slimy landing steps at Peddar's Wharf yesterday afternoon. This was not done before it was wanted, and many a dim vision of sprained ankles and broken limbs, has now been dispelled, we trust for ever and ever and a day longer.

A case of considerable importance and certainly of great interest to the newspaper world has just been decided by the Master of the Rolls. The Times newspaper published a memoir of the Earl of Beaconsfield, the value of which may be estimated from the fact that a publishing firm immediately advertised "The Life and Work of Benjamin Disraeli (Earl of Beaconsfield)," adding, "reprinted from the Times." The proprietors of the Times brought an action against the firm, and in the meantime moved, before the Master of the Rolls, to restrain them from publishing, printing, selling, or advertising such a pamphlet until the action had been tried. The plaintiffs relied upon a decision given in 1869 by Vice-Chancellor Malins that a newspaper did not require registration under the Copyright Act (1842), and that its proprietor was entitled, without such registration, to protection against piracy. The Master of the Rolls, however, considered the Times a periodical, and the word periodical is mentioned in the Copyright Act, and, therefore, the proprietors of the Times could not sue for protection. The subtle distinctions and technicalities which regulate our legal decisions are very puzzling to ordinary minds, and tend more and more to lower their confidence in, or respect for, the law. No Press is more liberal than the English in allowing extracts and quotations from its columns when the object is the spread of information for the public benefit, but it is a very different affair when its labours for the public are taken advantage of, and appropriated for private ends.—Japan Gazette.

A body of police under Inspector Perry made a successful raid upon a house in Powan-street last night, and succeeded in arresting upwards of seventy men, all fully armed and equipped for mortal combat. It appears that two men belonging to different clans had settled their affections on the same lady, who occupies the distinguished position of an inmate of a brothel in Square-street. A few evenings ago the rivals met at the house of the fair but frail one, and high words ensued which ultimately led to formal challenges being exchanged, each agreeing to collect his clansmen and fight the matter out to the death. Last night was fixed on for the fray and when Inspector Perry arrived at the head quarters of one of the belligerent parties in Powan-street, he found active preparations in progress. A large quantity of lime was heating over a fire, and when sufficiently dry was being stuffed into small chitties to be thrown over the heads of their opponents. The chitties were expected to break, and while the victims were partially smothered in the dry blinding lime the onslaught was to be made with bamboos, fighting irons, choppers, &c. One man who evidently occupied the position of a great captain amongst them was reading from a paper, exhorting them to stand their ground and fight like men, and not act like children. This morning they have been charged before Mr. H. E. Wodehouse with being suspicious characters and dangerous to the peace and good order of the Colony. The investigation is still proceeding as we go to press.

In answer to "Scrutator" we have to state that the Exchange quotations in this morning's Daily Press are totally unreliable.

The Wei Sing Lottery business is still the subject of general conversation, but nothing definite will be really known until the question of a second auction has been settled. That four different offers of one million and fifteen thousand dollars have been made to the Macao Government for the monopoly we do not for one moment believe, in fact the report is merely "a weak invention of the enemy," which any person can easily see through. Nor is it at all likely that "more than one Hongkong syndicate are known to have made arrangements to deposit not only the $20,000 required before bidding, but likewise to lodge $100,000 in the Banks here before going over to Macao to-morrow to bid for the Farm." The only Hongkong syndicate likely to have anything to do with the concern, is that organised by Mr. Pitman, of which Mr. Ho Atim is the leading spirit. Mr. Ho Atim went over to Macao yesterday and it is understood that he took $100,000, with him, so that presuming this to be correct, business is evidently meant. On Monday last we hear that he offered to pay Mr. Loureiro, the Portuguese Consul General in Hongkong, the sum of $50,000, cash, and to give a promissory note for the remaining fifty thousand, payable in one month, to take over the lottery monopoly at the original price of one million and fifteen thousand dollars; but Mr. Loureiro would not move in the matter unless the whole $100,000 were paid down. Unless Mr. Ho Atim arranges with the Macao Government to take the concern over on the terms of the first auction, the second auction will doubtless come off as advertised.

We have been favored by Capt. Scale of the s.s. Laertes with a copy of The London and China Express of June 10th, from which we take the following items:—

The Chinese gunboats Iota, Kappa, and Lambda now on their passage out, reached Malta on June 6th. The troopship Tyne, from Hongkong, has arrived at Portsmouth.

Major G. S. White, C.B., of the 92nd Regiment, has received the Victoria Cross for conspicuous bravery in the Afghan Campaign.

Great sensation has been caused in Austria by the suicide of Field-Marshal Baron Uchatius, the inventor of the bronze guns which bear his name.

In a conflict near Salonica between a body of Turkish troops and a band of brigands the latter were annihilated, only one being taken alive.

The statement that negotiations were in progress for the cession of the Sooloo Islands to Germany is contradicted.

Immigration to the United States is still increasing, and since the 1st June, 20,046 emigrants have landed, of whom more than 8,000 were Germans.

Mr. Biggar, M.P. has been hooted and hissed on the Glasgow Exchange, and owing to the rough treatment he received was compelled to retire.

The latest mail advices confirm the recent telegrams of the serious riot which occurred at Yale, in British Columbia. The Chinese laborers struck against the imposition of 2 per cent on each man's wages by the Chinese foremen, and, six hundred strong,

Mr. MOORE begs to recommend his GOGO SHAMPOO WASH to the public as unrivalled by any preparation ever produced for promoting the growth of the hair. The basis of this compound is made of soap root; the natives of the Philippine Islands never use anything else for washing their hair; they are never found bald, and it is quite common to see the females with hair from 5 to 6 feet long. By constantly using this Shampoo WASH as directed, you will never be bald. The proprietor offers the Wash to the public entirely confident that by its restorative properties it will without fail arrest decaying hair. It completely eradicates scurf, dandruff, and cures all diseases of the scalp. It does not contain any poisonous drugs. By its cooling properties it allays the itching and fever of the scalp, which is the great cause of people losing their hair.

Mr. MOORE has succeeded in being able to put this wash up in bottles without allowing it to ferment, and he will guarantee it to keep any length of time in any climate.

entered Yale, armed with crowbars and pickaxes, and attacked Ondonk's warehouse, stoning the police and injuring several severely. All the Chinese, 20,000 in number, on the Canadian Railway, have struck work.

The Grand Lodge of Scottish Freemasons has taken the extreme step of suspending "Lodge Canonage and Leith No. 5." It has existed for over 200 years, and during that time has done good service to freemasonry. But the Grand Lodge found that the books had been mutilated; and as other misdemeanours were discovered there was nothing left but to take over the property and close the lodge. The affair has caused considerable annoyance to freemasons in Scotland.

The Chinese Government recently desired to mark its appreciation of the value of the instruction received by Chinese Naval officers at the Royal Naval College, Greenwich, by decorating some of the staff. Permission has been given to those selected for this honor to accept the Orders, but they cannot, according to the existing regulation be worn by the recipients.

The two new steel vessels for the Chinese Government under construction on the Tyne are now ready for their preliminary trials. Should these prove satisfactory, the official trial will be held soon after. It is expected that the full contract speed will be realised.

CORRESPONDENCE.

[We do not hold ourselves responsible for the opinions expressed by Correspondents.]

To the Editor of

"THE HONGKONG TELEGRAPH."

DEAR SIR,—With reference to the paragraph in your issue of the 9th instant, containing some remarks on my sketch of the Hongkong Races, which appeared in the London Graphic of the 4th June last, I beg to inform you that the sketch in question does not in any way represent my original Drawing as forwarded by me to that paper for publication. The same as appears in the Graphic contains many exaggerations which I am at a loss to understand.

The principal features which I purposely entered in my sketch were the Chinese onlookers, and their customary way of carrying on their trade within the enclosure of the Race Course during the Race Meetings; but to my surprise I now find that most of them are struck out in the Graphic and those Gentlemen of the "Happy Hampton" style as mentioned in your paper figure in their stead.

Yours truly,
M. A. BAPTISTA, Jr.

[We have much pleasure in giving publicity to Mr. Baptista's explanation.—Ed. H.T.]

Additional News by the American Mail.

Foreign Affairs.

THE WASHINGTON TREATY.

LONDON, June 9.—The Under Foreign Secretary announced that as the provisions of the Treaty of Washington, under which the Americans enjoy privilege of fishing in British colonial waters, could not, in any case, expire before 1885, the Government was not at present in a position to consider the expediency of terminating the treaty, as far as it relates to the fishery question.

ASKED TO PUNISH PIRATES.

BERLIN, June 2.—The North German Gazette announced that the German Minister to Peking has urgently demanded the Government for China to take energetic measures to punish the pirates who recently plundered the German bark Ocident, and the German Consul at Canton has been instructed to call to his assistance a German man-of-war if necessary.

[SPECIAL CABLEGRAMS TO THE Morning Call.]

CORK, June 9—9.30 P.M.—There is a serious riot now in progress. Magistrate Stokes has been severely injured and three policemen badly wounded. The police charged the mob and several persons were injured.

RAILROADS BLOCKADED.

DUBLIN, June 2.—It was reported last night that both the railways running west from Cork, the Cork and Bandon, and the Macroom lines, had been tampered with, and a pilot engine was sent out in advance of the special. Four miles from Skibbereen it was found that a number of old rails had been placed across the road-bed, and that the culverts had been torn up; but the train was stopped in time to avoid a run off. Mr. Warburth, the Resident Magistrate at Skibbereen, accompanied by the Messrs. Swanton, one of whom, it will be remembered, was fired at on the Ballydehob road, three weeks ago, and other Magistrates, met the troops, who were reinforced by the arrival of a body of constabulary under Inspector Frazer. The streets of the town were filled with peasants, and the soldiers and police were hooted and stoned as they marched to the market square. In the meantime the news arrived of a riot at Ballydehob, last night, in which a body of marines was compelled to retreat under the protection of the priests, and soon the Ballydehobrioters, with an enormous mob from Skull, Damanway, Butte Vant, Bantry and the districts round about, marched into Skibbereen.

LATEST COMMERCIAL INTELLIGENCE.

Thursday, July 14th, 1881.
One o'clock P.M.

As usual on mail mornings the business in shares has been of a nominal character. A few Banks were sold yesterday afternoon at 107, and a goodly number could be placed this morning at that price, were they forthcoming. However holders seem disinclined for business at anything less than 108, and we have seen no transfers effected up to the time of going to press. Docks have still an upward tendency and after a good many sales, there are still buyers at 59. The Sugar Refining Company's stock is, if possible, weaker than when we last wrote, and plenty shares could be had at 170, but buyers, for some inexplicable reason, decline to make any offer. No doubt Sugars will find a proper level for legitimate operations in the course of the next few days. Particulars of all other stocks may be gleaned from appended list of quotations.
